

- NSR licensees and their scouts conduct free seminars to educate prospects and their parents in the college recruiting process. These seminars satisfy a great need in the high school sports community and they bring us in contact with many qualified prospects who may be interested in the NSR program.

- College scouting often revolves around club team tournaments and showcases. NSR sponsors and conducts tournaments and showcases in several different sports. Not only is this fun and exciting but it is also an excellent opportunity to communicate with athletes and their families who are interested in our program.

- NSR licensees often attend coaches conventions. This helps us to maintain personal relationships with college coaches and to remain a visible presence and influence in college scouting and recruiting.

- Every year our national meeting is an exciting event for licensees. We get together and talk about new things, share ideas, and renew friendships. There's usually a golf tournament and other social events, which makes this an enjoyable and much anticipated time for licensees.

CAN YOU PICTURE YOURSELF OWNING AN NSR SCOUTING BUSINESS?

- NSR stays on the cutting edge of technology to ensure that our prospects stay in the forefront of college recruiting. Our professional staff is always available to help licensees and scouts with support and training to ensure that they too stay up-to-date on the latest technology.

- New NSR licensees receive thorough home office training from seasoned veterans in the business. These individuals have many years of experience with NSR and they are the best in the business. They will teach you how to also become among the best. Our training and support never stops. We take great pride in being considered the best and most professional athletic scouting organization in the world.

- Our home office support staff is always available to our licensees. The staff is made up of professional veterans in the college scouting and recruiting industry. They are the very best in the business. Each staff member has many years experience and their knowledge and advice is shared with licensees continuously.

- Few business in the world are more self-satisfying than ours. You, as an NSR licensee, will be largely responsible for many student-athletes getting scholarships. This is a dream come true for both the student-athletes and for their parents. NSR licensees experience this situation over and over and over.

- Scouting young athletes at games, practices and tournaments.
- Talking to coaches
- Talking to student-athletes and their parents about college sports and recruiting.
- Attending or putting on showcases and seminars.
- Helping student-athletes realize their dreams and being responsible for getting them scholarship offers.

These are some of the things you may be doing in a typical work week. How does this compare with your present job description?